PIENZA SIENA TOSCANA ITALIA APARTMENT

A prestigious apartment in the historic centre of Pienza (Siena-Toscana) in the renaissance village. A Unesco site devised by Silvio Enea Piccolomini who in 1458 became Pope Pio II with the collaboration of the two most famous architects of the time, Rosalino and Leon Battista Alberti. The characteristic renaissance village extends to the top of the hill overlooking Val d'Orca and surrounded by the mediaeval villages of Monticchiello, Radicofani, Bagno Vignoni, San Quirico d'Orcia, Montepulciano and Montalcino.

The apartment covers an area of 120 sq metres situated on the second and top floor in one of the rinascimento buildings in Corso Rossellino once a cardinal residence. The original luxurious flooring with ceiling beams and chestnut doors create an elegant and inviting surrounding.

The kitchen is equipped with a double sink from the 1800's in Carrara marble.

There is a large double bedroom and large living room where the original fireplace is made of Serena stone.

The handmade staircase in Chestnut and leads to a second bedroom in the loft, which also houses a large wardrobe handmade in Chestnut

The bathroom has been completely refurbished to a high standard keeping the contemporary look for example a marble sink, shower and local tiled flooring.

The apartment has a wonderful view overlooking the valley. The property is situated within short distance of main cities for example Rome and Florence which can be reached within an hour and 30 mins. The coast is approx an hour away.

Within close proximity there are rebound spars.
